DEATH OF STEPNEY

DEPOT MERCHANT
 J. Herbert Craig Had Been Married Less Than Year.

J. Herbert Craig, aged 29 years and a member of the firm of Fenfield & Craig, proprietor of the store in Stepney, died this morning at Stepney after a short illness. For a number of years the deceased has been station agent at Stepney for the railroad company leaving that position about a year ago going into business under the name of Fenfield & Craig. The store was conducted for a number of years by Stephen French. The deceased has been married less than a year, his wife being Miss Jessie French.

ALLEGED CHARGE AGAINST "DIAMOND ANNE" M'KIERNAN

"Diamond Anne" McKiernan and John Schutte were arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Hall and sent to Fairfield where they are charged with assaulting Oliver Turney of that town on Sunday night. The case will be heard Friday morning in the town court. Meantime the two women are held on bonds of $5 each. Yesterday night the two women were standing in front of the Turney residence when a scheme was hatched so that Mr. Turney might be called out from his home. The women pretended that they were being assaulted by the men and called for help. Mr. Turney and Joseph Perry responded. The women then ran away and their pursuers were set upon by the five dark companions of the women, evidently with the intention of robbery. They were frightened away by the approach of others and took a trolley for Bridgeport. So far none of the men have been arrested.

NORWALK WOMAN IS WEARY OF MARRIAGE

Margaret Morrison, nee Nesbitt, of Norwalk, has brought divorce proceedings against her husband, George St. Morrison of New York for desertion. The couple were married July 11, 1892 and the desertion is alleged on Oct. 22, 1899. The plaintiff does not claim to be any relation to Evelyn Thaw. Papers were filed to-day.

GAFFEY IS VINDICATED

Served Seven Years as Grand Scroll Keeper of Loyal Legion.

Complete vindication marked the election of John J. Gaffney, captain of the degree team of Progressive circles of this city to the position of Grand Scroll-keeper of the Brotherhood of America at the state convention of that order held yesterday in Derby. Mr. Gaffney through trickery it is said was ousted from that position a year ago, after seven years of faithful service. Joseph H. Carroll, who was chosen as the replacement as the scroll keeper, yesterday tendered his resignation, it being accepted. Affairs had come to such a pass that Grand Chief Washington John McCarthy, who was re-elected without any opposition, declared that if Mr. Gaffney was not elected to the office he would decline to serve. It was after the close of the meeting and after about 25 of the Gaffney delegates had left the hall, that the other Gaffney delegates rallied and insisted that as the office was an elective and not an appointive one that a vote should be immediately taken. S. K. Bowers of this city was nominated in opposition but was defeated 72-10. The friends of Mr. Gaffney were so jubilant that they were not allowed to enter the hall. RETURNS OF OUT OF TOWN WEDDINGS

Bridgeport People Who Married In Other Connecticut Towns in First Six Months of 1909.

In the town clerk's office this morning a batch of returns were made by the registrars of several towns of the state of Bridgeport couples who have been married in those places during the past few months. At New Haven on July 21 Richard Swerdsky, machinist, aged 31, was wedded to Charlotte Eardley, both of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Luther Stober. At New Haven on July 20 Miss Mary E. Cook aged 23, daughter of Louis Cook married Edward S. Sweeney, a singer. Both reside here. The ceremony was performed by George M. Rowe, Justice of the Peace. At New Haven on July 21 A. Burdette Hughes married Miss Alice Cooper aged 21 to Paul F. Flynn, a clerk. Both reside here. At Derby on August 6 Rev. W. H. Alexander married Helen Whalley, aged 21, a waitress to John Schutte, a butcher. Both reside here. At Ansonia on August 5 Rev. Henry Blatz former pastor of the Summerfield M. E. church married Miss Lilian J. Osborne aged 23, daughter of C. Henry Osborne to Mr. Frank A. Shaw aged 31, a clerk of this city. Both reside here.

FISHER PAYS FOR KILLING CHRISTIANSEN

A settlement has been effected in the suit brought by Christian J. Christiansen for $5,000 against the Fishers of New York, and a Yale student. The suit grew out of the killing of John Christiansen, son of the plaintiff on June 1, 1899, at the intersection of Stratford and Surf avenues by an automobile driven by Fisher. The boy at the time was crossing the street on the wrong side of the street. The amount paid is not stated.

MRS. KATZ TURNED ON WATER, BUT NOT MALICIOUSLY

Mrs. Pauline Katz was discharged this morning in the city court by Judge Foster. A charge of injury to property had been preferred against her by her landlady, Mrs. Elias Schwartz, of 129 Wordin avenue. It seems that yesterday noon the water had been turned off in the Katz flat and Mrs. Katz had made several attempts to draw water, but on her last try she left the faucet open by accident and water leaked through and stained the carpet. Mrs. Schwartz claimed that Mrs. Katz had left the faucet open intentionally, but the evidence does not support her and so the defendant was found not guilty. Attorney Charles Shapiro represented the defendant.

Man Who Would Die Identified As Edward Charters

The man who walked into the Third precinct police station last night and said he wanted to die has been identified as Edward Charters, aged 40, a burnisher of Meriden. He gave the name of Edward Kepia last night. He was removed to St. Vincent's hospital where it was found he was suffering with lung trouble and paresis. It is believed that he will have to be sent to insane asylum at Middletown. The Meriden authorities say they will take charge of the case.

APPEAL TAKEN; STAMFORD CASE

(Special from United Press.) Stamford, Aug. 25.—An appeal was taken to-day from an assessment of damages made by the city for a change of grade of a walk in Atlantic street. The appellants are Charles J. Clark and John Clark. The city council recently concluded to change the grade at a cost for damages of about $10,000. The appropriation board refused to give the money advising less radical changes. Some lawyers hold that the liability of the city is not affected by the refusal of the Appropriation Board to grant the money.

MAN'S BODY FOUND IN GREENWICH

Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 25.—The body of a man about 30 years of age with 10 cents in his pockets was found this morning between here and Port Chester. Half his head had been cut off by a train. The remains have not been identified.

HEIR TO HARRIMAN MILLIONS, WHO IS LEARNING THE RAILROAD BUSINESS

The principal heir to the many millions of Edward H. Harriman is the elder of his two sons, W. Averell Harriman. The young Harriman is eighteen years old and has undertaken the learning of the railroad business from the ground up. With that end in view he is hard at work currying the chain in a surveying gang on the Oregon Short Line, one of the roads in which the Harrimans have a large interest. When Mr. Harriman went to Europe in search of health Averell had his choice of how he should spend the summer and the last he chose was an opportunity to go to Europe. He declared that he wanted to learn something about how railroads are located, and he is now doing so. Asked if he wanted to start at the bottom, as any other boy would have to, he replied that he did. He is earning $5 a month and is treated just like one of the other employees in his gang.

SHRINERS ENJOY A DAY'S OUTING

Accompanied by Band They Go to Partake of Roasted Sheep by River's Side.

Over 300 Shriners left the Masonic Temple today at 1 o'clock in special trolley cars for the west shore of the Housatonic river in Stratford, where the annual outing of Pyramid Temple is being held. The party was accompanied by a band of music. The Shriners are under the leadership of F. E. Brown. The feature of the afternoon is a ball game between Bridgeport nobles and picked players from the Shriners. A sheep roast was served at 1:30 o'clock and a clambake at 4 o'clock under the direction of Mark Nagle.

Police Baseball Game Will Be Followed by Dinner

Unless Jupiter Pluvius gets in his road work tomorrow afternoon Newfield Park will be the Mecca for fun and frolic, as the Bridgeport cops are to meet up with the New Haven Police Baseball Association, which is the champion of the city. From the present outlook there will be one of the greatest crowds on hand that ever witnessed a game. The number of tickets sold have been well into the thousands. The Bridgeport Police Baseball Association, which is a well known organization, has a festive board at Steeplechase after the game. The invited guests are requested to meet with the committee at the north end of the railroad station at 1:30 o'clock to wait the oncoming of the New Haven cops, who are due on the 1:40 train. All will be hustled into special cars at the foot of the ramp to the ball grounds, the game being started about 2:30 o'clock. During the game the play Jimmy will follow after the game, at Weber's pavilion, where merriment and speech-making will reign supreme.

WALL STREET TO-DAY.

(Special from United Press.) New York, Aug. 25.—(Opening)—The press description of Harriman's condition during the nervousness of the stock market. With the beginning of business this morning there was a heavy selling pressure, the evidence being a decline in the market. The closing was a decline in the market. The closing was a decline in the market.

RAID CAUSES DIVORCE SUIT

Attorney Mann of Boston Here for Clients and to Renew Old Acquaintance.

Attorney Charles Mann, of Boston, who until about three years ago, practiced law in this city, is in town today visiting his many friends here. Mr. Mann returned to Connecticut primarily to attend a convention of the Brotherhood of the Union which was held Monday and Tuesday of this week in Derby, Conn. Eleven years ago he was the grand chief of the order in this state and later became the Supreme Washington of the Brotherhood of the Union, which is the highest office of that organization in the country. He now bears the title of Post Supreme Washington and as such played a prominent part in the state convention at Derby.

Attorney Mann has now a very lucrative practice in Boston. On July 1908, he was appointed a master in chancery by Governor Gulliver for a term of five years, his jurisdiction covering entire Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He will remain in this city until Friday when he will return to Boston.

RALPH E. CHESTER IN CHARGE OF TRY-ON

Government Boat Ready for Work of Inspecting Small Craft.

The 45 foot twin screw launch "Try-On" of New Haven, Captain Bradley is now in this harbor under the directions of Ralph E. Chester, the newly appointed deputy inspector of customs. The boat will remain here six weeks, having been chartered by the Treasury department for that length of time. Her mission will be to allow the inspector to inspect all power boats in the local harbor to see if the government rules of navigation are obeyed. The government holds that a boat with an engine in her is subject to the same rules as an ocean liner. Each boat is supposed to be supplied with side lights, a head light, fog light, a whistle, fog horn, a bell and two copies of the rules of navigation. It will be the duty of the inspector to see that the rules are complied with and boat owners who fail to do so will be liable to be fined. It is understood that boat owners in the section have complied with the laws quite generally.

COMPROMISE IN SHARPS HABEAS CORPUS SUIT

A compromise was arrived at this afternoon in the habeas corpus case instituted by Attorney Herbert E. Sharps of Georgia against his parents-in-law Oliver Turney and James E. Turney, of Newburgh, N. Y. and his wife, Elizabeth Turney Sharps to secure custody of his eight year old daughter. The hearing held before Judge Bennett of the Superior Court, Attorney Charles F. Mann of Boston appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney John Packer were counsel for the defendants. The result of the compromise was that Mr. Sharps is permitted to see his daughter one day each week, three hours at each time and that the child be not taken from the premises.

GIFT FOR "YOUNG JIMMY" O'ROURKE

While the Connecticut delegation of the Foresters of America were in sojourn here at Toledo, O., the Columbus Club of the American Baseball Association played a few games in that town. Jimmy O'Rourke, who is a member of the Columbus club, hearing of the presence in Toledo of John E. Lyddy, who was the Bridgeport delegate, called on him at the Boddy House and invited the Connecticut delegates to be his guests at one of the games between Toledo and Columbus. During the play Jimmy was presented with a mammoth floral horseshoe by his Connecticut friends.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Peter J. O'Rourke was largely attended from the home of his mother, 325 George street, this morning at 9:30 and from St. Augustin's church at 2, where Father Kennedy celebrated a mass of requiem. The floral offerings were numerous and most beautiful. The McKinley monument in Niagara Square last night, and then turned the weapon upon himself is dying at the Emergency Hospital. Mrs. Weems will recover. The shooting followed a quarrel over jewelry which Weems wished his wife to pawn.

HUSBAND IS DYING. WIFE WILL RECOVER.

(Special from United Press.) Buffalo, Aug. 25.—Harry S. Weems, a well known traveling salesman from Chicago who fired 2 shots into his wife's body while the couple were standing near the McKinley monument in Niagara Square last night, and then turned the weapon upon himself is dying at the Emergency Hospital. Mrs. Weems will recover. The shooting followed a quarrel over jewelry which Weems wished his wife to pawn.

Nipped Himself.

A political speaker accused a rival of "unfeminine meanness" and then, rising to the occasion, said, "I won't let him not to persist in his disgraceful course or he'll find that two of us can play at that game."

Got His Share.

"Casey do be a great fighter." "He is that. Yesterday he walked ten miles to lick a monster." "An' did he walk back, too, I dunno?" "No; he was carried back."—Cleveland Leader.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances on Main street, Fairfield avenue and Cannon street.

Bridgeport, Conn., Wednesday, August 25, 1909
 The Weather—Partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow.

Pick a plum from the summer wear collection and do not lose any time. If there were but a week of wearing-time ahead, these wears would still be of very great attraction. But there are several weeks for them to give service in—and the prices that have been fixed are such that you'll have to be prompt if you care to profit. It is no time for lagging.

Second floor.

If you figure on new floor-covering for bathroom or kitchen, right now is time to buy it. Here are linoleums and oil-cloths at a price only about half of the usual. Rather, here were when this was written. If quantity was not large, wouldn't dare advertise such values again.

$1.25 inlaid linoleum, 65c.

40c heavy oil-cloth,—29c.

Each in 2-yard width only, linoleum in lengths of 1 to 7 yards.

Third floor.

Can with ease.

Canning any sort of fruit or vegetable is made easy by use of the new Economy jar. Just how easy is to be found out by a visit to the demonstration now being given here.

The Economy jar has a large mouth, making it an easy jar to fill. It has straight sides and is of clear white flint glass. It is of good shape as well as good quality.

But its greatest feature is the method of sealing. There are no clamps to be fastened into place, no porcelain lined screw-tops. Instead a cap which is sealed into place without pressure, by the warmth of the jar itself—and that will keep the jar airtight for years, if desired.

Every kind of meat and vegetables may be preserved in Economy jars and all are put up with equal ease.

No, Economy jars are not an experiment. They have been tried and found satisfactory by many housewives.

Three sizes, pints quarts and half-gallons,—$1 $1.10 and $1.35 a dozen.

Penicillin on Zinc. An ordinary pencil mark on zinc is a measure of indecision. The writer saw recently a zinc label on which a name had been written with an ordinary lead pencil thirty years ago, and after a little of the oxide had been rubbed off the name was as legible as if it was just written. For permanency, where no illegibility is desired, nothing can be more durable.—Exchange.

Logically Demonstrated.

She—I can prove logically and mathematically that women are worth more than men. He—I'd like to see you do it, my dear. She—Isn't a miss as good as a mile? He—So they say. She—And doesn't it take a whole lot of men to make a league?—Baltimore American.

Second floor.

Correct attire of the hair.

It is the arrangement of the hair that makes or mars the appearance of one's hat. No one thing about the costume is of greater importance this season than the proper dressing of the hair. To have it right, one must choose puffs and pompadours and such things that are known to be of right fashion. This hair-goods section offers them, offers such as you can depend upon—and always offers them at reasonable price.

Switches, of all long hair, lengths from 16 to 24 inches and in qualities from straight to natural wavy,—$1 to $3.

Gray switches, natural, fine, 16 and 18 inch,—$2.50. Marcel pompadours,—$1.85.
